The petitioner appeared before the District Revenue Officer and the District Nodal Officer, Khammam-2nd respondent and submitted the necessary documents. Since no enquiry report has been sent by the second respondent to the third respondent to be forwarded to the fourth respondent, she has chosen to approach this Court by way of writ jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India.

The learned counsel for the petitioner submits that the petitioner appeared before the Revenue Divisional Officer-District Nodal Officer, Khammam in pursuance of the notice dated 02.01.2002 served on her and submitted necessary documents. But no enquiry report has been submitted by the second respondent and thereby, the fourth respondent is not able to pass any orders on the application for grant of Freedom Fighters Family Pension.

A copy of the notice has been placed on record. As per the notice dated 02.01.2002 the petitioner was required to appear before the second respondent on 12.01.2002 and produce necessary documents. It is the version of the petitioner that she appeared before the second respondent and submitted necessary documents.

Such is the situation, it is for the second respondent to submit necessary enquiry report to the third respondent for being forwarded to the fourth respondent to consider the claim of the petitioner for sanction of Freedom Fighters Family Pension.

In the result, the writ petition is disposed of giving a direction to the District Revenue Officer-District Nodal Officer-2nd respondent to submit the enquiry report to the third respondent for being forwarded to the fourth respondent to consider the case of the petitioner for grant of Freedom Fighters Family Pension within two months from the date of receipt of a copy of the order.
